The government has archived accommodation for 150 soldiers to be prepared at Ballinn, Ireland, where a lady landowner was recently mobbed and assaulted on the street. A Dublin correspondent, commenting on Forster's memorandum, says: "The truth is the magistrates, agents and landlords generally are panic-stricken, and do not venture to enforce the law. A prosecution brought by the attorney-general at Ballinsloe, and another in Sligo, have been broken down, which has had a discouraging effect. There is also a difficulty about treating the Land-League meetings as unlawful assemblies. Magistrates do not feel justified in regarding the threat to Boycott as coming within the act, as it does not imply violence."

The Pull Mall Gazette says: "Everybody will ask why Forster's memorandum reminding the magistrates of the powers they pos-

OUR GREAT CLEARANCE SALE

A LATE SEASON HAS INDUCED

A COFFIAL BRADY DOMINION TO THE DED PENTI A DYEGIAL IVIANA DUWN UT TU PEN GENT!

You may have observed there is quite a general disposition in the Trade to talk about marking down Clothing. Such talk comes from somebody else doing it; for when somebody does mark down, a good many others pretend to. It is for you to find out who have done it and who only talk about it. We have on hand a stock of Fine Ready-Made CLOTHING AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, of $100,000, which must be closed out within the next Thirty Days to make room for our immense line of Spring Goods, which we will place in our establishment. This Great Mark Down and Sweeping Sale should be taken advantage of by everybody, for we are doing this to benefit the public. Both rich and poor have the same opportunity. PARENTS, bring your children; and we will show you an immense line of Boys' and Children's Suits, Handsomely Made, Stylish in Cut, Perfect in Fit, and Low in Price. COUNTRY MERCHANTS, send in your Orders. We can, and will, sell yon Clothing Lower than any House in Memphis. Our Stock is still Complete, in Sizes and Styles. and we can fill all orders as well as in the beginning of the Season.

ONE PRICE HOUSE! MAMMOTH CLOTHING HOUSE.
